Franklin Baseball Camps Information

All camps will be directed by Franklin College head coach Lance Marshall, his staff and players. All December, January and February camps will be held in the Fitness Center, located directly across the street from Fought Stadium. All summer camps will be held at John P. McDowell Field, home of the Grizzlies. Both venues are located on the Franklin College campus.

Hitting Camps

All hitting camps will cover the aspects of the fundamentals of hitting, including instruction in hitting, bunting, base running and mental approach to hitting.

Pitching Camps

All pitching camps will cover all aspects of the fundamentals of pitching. This includes mechanics, pitch grips, pickoff moves, arm care and variation of pitches.

All Skills Camp

The focus of the All Skills camps is all around player development. Camps are designed to improve each young player's skills and knowledge of the game.

Advanced Skills Camp

This camp is specifically designed for the advanced player. Players will be instructed in all phases of the game, further delving into the mental part of baseball including situational baseball and game preparation.

Lance Marshall...Head Coach

Lance Marshall was named the head coach of the Franklin College baseball program in August 1997. He is also the college's coordinator of athletic recruitment and a counselor in FC's office of admissions. In his tenure at Franklin, Marshall has guided the Grizzlies to three Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference regular season championships. In the most recent 2009 season, Marshall coached Franklin to a 31-11 record and its third HCAC title. The Grizzlies posted a 17-4 mark in HCAC contests-matching their best league record of 2002-and earned their sixth appearance in the conference tournament. He was also named the HCAC's Coach of the Year for the third time. Moreover, Franklin was ranked a best-ever 21st in the American Baseball Coaches Association/Collegiate Baseball national Top 3- poll for NCAA Division III schools.

In 2005, Franklin won the HCAC title with a 15-6 mark, including 29-15 overall record. Marshall was voted the HCAC's Coach of the Year for the second time. The Grizzlies led the league in both team batting average and team earned run average and garnered a #24 national ranking in the ABCA/Collegiate Baseball poll.

In the spring of 2002, Marshall coached FC to a school record 32 victories and its first HCAC regular season crown with a league record 17 triumphs. Franklin was rated in the Top 30 in the nation for the first time. Marshall was voted the HCAC's Coach of the Year-the first time a Franklin coach was the recipient of the honor.

Moreover, during Marshall's tenure, the Grizzlies boast two victories over NCAA Division I scholarship opponents. The Grizzlies earned a 6-2 triumph at Butler University in 2009. This followed one of the most notable victories in school history defeating the University of Notre Dame 4-3 in South Bend, IN in 2007. He owns an overall coaching record of 266-216 for 12 seasons at FC.

His previous college baseball coaching experience includes assistant coach positions at two NCAA Division III schools in Illinois, Elmhurst and Rockford Colleges. At Elmhurst, where he earned his bachelor's degree, Marshall guided the pitchers and catchers, directed the fall baseball program and was involved in recruiting from 1995-1997. Moreover, Elmhurst captured the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin championship in 1997 while Marshall was coaching there. Marshall was an assistant coach at Rockford College while working on his master's degree in secondary education, which he received in 1995. Additionally, he was the manager of operations at the Chicago White Sox Training Centers after serving as instructor and regional director. He also served as an associate scout for the Houston Astros from 1995-1998.
